

Arcuri's town hall meeting at MVCC will be his 21st town hall in 2009 and will allow constituents to make comments and ask questions to provide a healthy and civilized discourse regarding healthcare reform. Arcuri has spent the month of August traveling the district and meeting with stakeholders in the healthcare industry including doctors, nurses and hospital administrators. Arcuri will continue to host town hall meetings across the 24th Congressional District before Congress returns to session after Labor Day. Information about additional town hall meetings will be posted as soon as event details have been finalized.
